“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ As a child I viewed my mother as a strong woman, like no other woman I've even known. She is richly favor in the Lord and is basing in joy with her husband, son and grandson. Oh how great is our God. We are one bless family to be raised by a mother who loved and feared the Lord. She taught us the principles of God's word to know and live up to. But she left it up to us to live the life that would be pleasing in God's sight. I pray that we will teach our children to learn more about Christ, attend church, become part of a ministry, attend meetings that will contribute toward the growth of God's Kingdom and praise the Lord every day and always. Lastly, mom told us to never step over your brother when he down, but always reach down and give him a hand. I love you mom, you taught us to love one another even when we didn't want to. You blessed me with a wonderful husband.

I can' t imagine my life without my Mom. She was my best friend. She shared so much love and knowledge with me. Mom was like my doll i never had, i love doing her hair, nails going shopping and seeing her expression on her face when she liked what i had brought her...simply precious
