“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I still can't believe you are gone. We shared so many memories and so many secrets. You were a true friend to the end. We didn't speak everyday but we never had an argument where we didn't speak to each other. I will forever treasure the time that we had together. God knew what was in his plan and he made sure that I was able to get that one last hug from you. You were an angel walking the earth and you now have your wings so fly on my sister. Job well done you faithful servant. I love you and Im going to miss you Tricky T.

“ May God be with the family of Ms. Robertson. Please continue to rely on Him during this difficult time. God is aware of the tears and pain you are feeling and He will give you the strength needed to endure this devastating loss of your dear loved one for we are told at Psalm 34:17 that "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit". I pray that this scripture will bring you comfort in your time of mourning. My condolences to you all.

“ Words cannot describe how much I am in shock and in pain right now, when I learned about your passing. I will forever treasure the many times we would have conversations, the words of encouragement that you would give me in times when I was down, as well as the very last phone conversation we had on 1/9/14. You were truly a Sister in Christ for me, and I am truly blessed and honored to not only work directly side by side with you when we were at work, but learn everything to continue that process going when you were away. To Ijeoma and her family, I pray for strength, healing and peace during this time. Your mother was truly a beautiful person with a beautiful soul that influenced everyone in a positive light. May God bless everyone during this time of sorrow.
