“ My sincere condolences to the family during this time of great sorrow. May loving family and friends help you in the days ahead to cope with the loss of Oatmeal. At times like these we can draw comfort from God's promise that there will be a future "resurrection" back to life. Jesus said, "do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Until this promise is fulfilled may you draw close to God because he cares for you.--John 5:28, 29

“ I am truly sorry for the lost of your loved one. Even though I did not know Mr. Williams personally my condolences goes out to you and your family. Often during this time we turn to God and His scriptures for comfort. The scripture that brings me comfort is taken from Is 25:8, which assures us that God will swallow up death forever. I hope this scripture brings you comfort as well.
