“ To the family of my lifelong friend Ora Dean

Solemn words of comfort

"The heavens declare HIS glory; the firmament sheweth HIS handywork"

Unforgettable moments

Ora and I broke the rules of curfew and venue. We thumbed a ride to the off-limits Elks dance hall on a SUNDAY night. I accepted my penalty; Ora refused. She packed her clothes, ready to depart. Mr. Alphonse met her at the door saying. "you're welcome to go but take you stuff out of my suitcase right now". The stuff is yours; the suitcase is mine."

The laughter began. I never forgave the rat who squealed on us.

The laughter continues;;;

“ Ora and I have been friends for over fifty years. We worked together at Post Middle School. We worked there for over thirty years. We had more seniority than anybody whoever worked there. Needless to say we ran the place!! Ora drove from Pontiac to Post(Detroit). She would arrive at about seven thirty and I would get there a little before to start the coffee and open the back door of the girl's locker room (which was adjacent to the parking lot) and let her in. We would get prayed up, have coffee and get ready for our day. Everyone has their cross to bear and Ora bore her's better than anyone. She was my inspiration for bearing mine. To say I will miss her is a gross understatement. I love you OJ!!

“ My Aunt Ora meant the world to me. Whenever something happen, I could pick up the phone and say "Auntie, guess what" ofcourse, we would either laugh about it or talk crap! I was her lil Kay Kay...I'm sure going to miss her and our talks. Love you Auntie!! Take care of Uncle Gerald and My dad.

Jennings Johnson Families, though it will be difficult, release Ora asap. Now that she has made her transition, don't make her have to worry about us from the spirit realm. Now you know by now that She and Gerald have started talking about everybody. Their jaws will be hurting like mine have for 47 years of knowing her. SMILE

When Wesley and I visited Pontiac after the famous wedding in AL, ORA and OSCAR welcomed me and Wesley into their home and restaurant. Subsequently, after Oscar's transition, Ora welcomed me, and any others into her presence. I loved my Soror, and I believed that she loved me. If we didn't laugh at, or talk about you, something had gone wrong!! My jaws have begun to hurt this morning as I think of Soror Helen's den, front porch in McComb, Claudette's living room, and Daddy Charles and MaDear's house. Life was good, and she lived it well.

My health prevents me from being at the first major event that I can remember. Know that I love you ALL, including my Avery Family. Faith, Hope, and Love. But, the greatest of these is LOVE. JESUS LOVES US!!
