Ms. Reynolds was preceded in death by her parents, Sammie and Marie Myles; brothers Henry Myles, Sr. and Sammie Myles, Jr.; sister, Samella Bridges; and great-nephew, Marquis Myles.

At Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, we value the safety and health of our customers, staff and the general public. Therefore, we will adhere to EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 2020-11 issued by our Governor Gretchen Whitmer, regarding assemblages in the wake of the unprecedented health challenge our state and nation is facing. The Executive Order is as follows: Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following: 1. Beginning on April 10, 2020 at 9:00 am, and Continuing Until Further Notice. All assemblages of more than 10 people in a single indoor shared space and all events of more than 10 people are prohibited in this state. A single indoor shared space includes but is not limited to a room, hall, cafeteria, auditorium, theater, or gallery. The prohibition on assemblages set forth in this section does not apply to: We do understand that this may pose a challenge to you and your family, but our dedicated staff is here to help guide you towards making the best decisions in memorializing your loved one.

“ Rev. Joseph Hobbs, on behalf of my family we would like to extend our heartfelt condolences and prayers to the family of the Late Oremelia Reynolds. We were her next door neighbors for the past year. We were blessed by her kindness and her warm spirit. She always possessed a genuine concern for the well-being of others along with an encouraging word. She will certainly be missed in the neighborhood. We pray that she find rest in the presence of our loving God!

Ormelia, was my friend You don't meet many people like her in this life genuine loving and kind. And always have Bible scriptures to talk to me about. She will be forever missed I lived across the street for her, we looked out for each other. Every time I look out the window towards her house I feel blessed that she passed my way. Love you and your memory Chris Elam❤️
