“ I met Pam in 1979 at Oakland University Upward Bound and we hit it off instantly. She was a Beautiful person and always keep a smile on her face and brought joy to everyone she came a round. This one hit me hard she reminded me of myself always smiling, cracking jokes and that Laughter just made you smile. Fly high my Sister now you are in the hands 🙌 of our Lord and savior.

Pam was my best friend. Our relationship was very close. I've had the pleasure of spending 2 beautiful years knowing Pam. We've had a lot of beautiful times together. I've had the pleasure of meeting most of the family. My condolences to her brothers who stuck with her and loved her unconditionally. Stay strong and stay together. My condolences to all of the family.
