“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your loved one Pamela. God did not create mankind to die. God made provisions by sending his Son as a ransom sacrifice for those who have faith in him. Those who put faith in him might gain everlasting life. John 3:36 mentions "he who exercise faith in the son has everlasting life." May Jehovah comfort your family during this difficult time. “ I'm sitting in your home right now.. And I've been here since Friday..... You can feel that your presence is no longer here. It doesn't seem real, although we knew this days was coming, we just weren't ready yet to prepare for your new journey. I miss your laugh, and talking about Food and your smile. You were more then my mom's best friend, you were my aunt, a motivator a genuine spirit. I know God has a angel up there looking over us. our hearts are heavy but knowing you are no longer suffering gives us peace. Love you and rest peacefully.

“ An Angel is gone, sometimes I wonder why God pick the good ones the ones we have not finished loving, the ones we don't want to let go of yet but he has his own plans. My condolences go out to the family and friends that love her so much, she is missed already. And don't worry Pam we will take good care of Billy. Venita Reynolds

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.
