“ Pam, waking up that Monday morning and reading those words felt like a knife. I met you in February 2014, with your bighead cousin. You have the most open heart filled with pure love, you showed me nothing but love, you shared your beautiful children, grands, and family with me. I loved our talks and laughs. No more pain, soar with Jesus, the angel's, your parents and beautiful family..... YOU are missed and oh so loved! ❤️🌹❤️🌹

“ My heart so heavy and Sadden at the same time knowing that you are really gone. While at bingo and I look to my right you wont be sitting next to me, nor will you be on the other end of the phone saying Auntie bring me some food you cooked or come to Dialysis and bring me some snacks. Pam i long to hear you say those words to me one more time. Now i face reality that God had the Power to take you home and to eat with him now. I will cherish the 43 years God gave me with you. I wont be selfish and ask you to come back or question Gods work because your date was already stamped on 10-1-18. We just had accept Gods work and be forever grateful for sending you to us. You was our Angel on earth and will always be our Angel even in Heaven. Pam through all the pain you wore a smile that brighten every room you entered. Never had nothing bad to say about no one. I Love You Pam. I Love You Pam. Pam Pam Pam❤️❤️❤️
