Pastor Clarence Sanford Mack Jr. was born to the union of the late Stella Mae and Clarence Mack, Sr. on September 12, 1952 in Pontiac, Michigan. He was the oldest of four siblings. Pastor Mack was a product of Pontiac Public School District and graduated from Pontiac Northern High School. He furthered his education at Cranbrook Institute of Arts and Oakland University.

Pastor Mack was employed by Pontiac Board of Education for over twenty-one years. He was also employed at the prestigious Carey Lee Restaurant in Birmingham, Michigan and retired from Hardy North America in Davenport, Iowa. Pastor Mack had many hobbies and past times one being photography. Clarence better known as "Slip" used his camera as a tool to bring out the beauty of everyone he photographed. Another hobby and past time was that Clarence loved to ballroom dance. Clothing was a passion of Pastor Mack, especially bow ties. Pastor Mack loved relaxing by the water and spending time with his family and dear friends.

At an early age, Pastor Mack was baptized under the leadership of Pastor Lottie Glenn at New Creation Church of Apostolic Faith in Detroit, Michigan. Under the leadership of the late Pastor David Ellison. Pastor Mack received the gift of the Holy Spirit in 2003. Being called by God to the ministry, Pastor Clarence Mack received his ordination under Bishop Author M. Bariaiser of Chicago, Illinois. Pastor Mack was called to pastor Now Faith Apostolic Church in Davenport, Iowa. Later, under the leadership of Pastor Mark Anderson at Pentecostal Church of God in Iowa. Later under the leadership of Pastor Mark Anderson at Pentecostal Church of God in Davenport, Iowa he joined and presided until God said well-done good and faithful servant.

Pastor Clarence Mack's life reflected his belief, commitment and devotion to serving God. Everything was centered on living for God.

Pastor Mack had some favorite sayings. One being, "It doesn't take long to be strong." Another, "We are too blessed to be stressed." God is not through with us yet.

“ May your family find peace and comfort at this most difficult time. Isaiah 25:8 says: "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth. For Jehovah himself has spoken it."

“ To the Mack family:

May god bless you in this time of loss.

Please Know that Clarence is now with Mr & Mrs Mack, Debra, and Steven.

I pray that you may find some peace and comfort in knowing that, although he is absent from his body, he is now present with the lord.

I will always remember his wonderful spirit and the good times we had growing up on Central street in Pontiac. Clarence (Slip) Mack will be sorely missed but never forgotten.
