“ To Veneta and family so very sorry to hear about the loss of your mom she was a very nice and beautiful person and a good mother to you, I remember her kindness always when I came across the street to your home, she always had that beautiful smile. I pray that God give your the peace and comfort that only he can give in times like these I have already walk this road the hurt get better each day, with God help that is mom and yes you will have the good day and bad but as long as you continue to trust God he truly will help you through this I know trust me we are praying for the family.
