“ Dear Brenda and Family-I remember Patrick when we worked together at PGH and his devotion to his sisters,,,he still was that same caring and smiling person I saw again in Ga this March. He came to meet us for lunch...keep those memories close to your heart. God Bless you and give you all His Comfort and Peace..

“ To the family: May God continue to bless you and give you the strength that you need at this time. To LaJean; I know that your brother was a great part of your life and full of encouragement and advice for you. Always remember that and how much he loved you and you will become stronger in his remembrance.

Love your sister, Nikki

“ I had the opportunity to meet Pat about 6 years ago. I meet Pat through my niece, Quwana. I enjoyed many good conversations with Pat and the time he spent with my family. GOD do not make any mistakes. Pat is now watching over all of us. He will certainly be missed by many. A life well lived. Rest on Pat!

“ Pat I know His grace will be with you and I know you are an Angel watching over us. Cruises will never be the same without your physical presence. We will look out for Stacie because she is a real sweetie. I will help her the best I can.

Pat, I love you and miss you I know you are watching over me with your hi-tech camera.

“ To the Smith Family,

Pat touched so many lives; he had a big heart and was so wonderful. We all will miss him dearly. I am among his friends who cruised with him every other year; future trips will not be the same without Pat. The Lord called him Home for a special reason.

Siblings, continue to know that your "Big Brother Almighty" is always looking out for each of you and will forever be with you in spirit.

I will uplift you all in my prayers. Please stand strong in faith.
