Paul "Bu" Howard McCallister was born on August 16, 1970 in Pontiac, Michigan. Paul is the son of Mary McCallister and the late Paul McCallister. He was a resident of Pontiac, Michigan. Paul accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a very young age. Paul graduated from Pontiac Northern High School in 1988. He then went on to attend Oakland Community College; majoring in Computer Science. Paul loved to laugh and to crack jokes. Paul was a very generous man. If he had 50 cents, you had 30; not 25 but 30, because Paul was a giver and had the biggest heart. Paul's smile was infectious. He could make anyone feel better just from seeing his smile. Paul had a love for music and instruments. His favorite artists were Stevie Wonder and Tupac Shakur.

Paul loved to play instruments and his favorite to play was the harmonica. We could go on forever about the great man Paul was but it is shown in his own words: "God don't make no mistakes; only we do. Though he keeps helping us with new chances, new choices; it is what you choose, he that chooses wrong chooses damnation. What's your choice? Make your decision. Be the choice that God would choose in the name of Him. God blesses the child that chooses Him in everything he/she decides." Paul was truly a sweet soul. He loved with his whole heart and his message, in his own words, to those that knew and loved him is "Rather than be depressed, enjoy your moment in the sun."

Mr. Howard-McCallister leaves to cherish his memory mother, Mary McCallister; children, Jeremy, Tasha, Alexa, Cameron and Taya; grandson, Caden; siblings, Twanisha (Randy) Potter and Carlton McCallister; nieces and nephews, Breyonna McCallister, John Davis, Marc and Shania McCallister; and other relatives and friends including special friends, Mike Long, Matthew Smith, Kristyn Recchia, Leah Smith, Shameika and Robert Rush, Nicole "Toya" Breaux.
