Phebie Mae Hall, was born January 5, 1940 in Tyronza, Arkansas to the late Felix and Lillie Matt (Smith) Carpenter. She departed this life on October 25, 2024 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital (Trinity) at the age of 84.

Phebie moved to Detroit, Michigan where she married Robert Hall Sr. and later moved to Pontiac, Michigan and from this union two sons were born. She accepted Christ at an early age and after moving to Pontiac, Michigan, she joined Welcome Missionary Baptist Church where she served until her health deteriorated.

Phebie was employed at Crittenton Hospital for approximately 47 years. She retired at the age of 72. Prior to retirement, she enjoyed reading, watching westerns on television, walking each morning, planting and working in her flower garden and having family gathering for any occasions. She loved cooking and feeding family and anyone in the Herrington Hills neighborhood who wanted a plate, especially on holidays. She invited family to dinner each Sunday after church.

Phebie memories will continue to live on in the hearts of her two loving sons, Robert J. Hall Jr. and Ronnie Joe Hall both of Pontiac, MI; stepdaughter, Denise Bonds of Indianapolis, IN; grandchildren, Scottie, Daejana, A.J., Da'Marion, Da'veon, Ariel, Tyrese, Terrance (Tyionnel) Shanise, Laniqua, Damarcus, Darnell and Nicholas; great-grandchildren, Aden, Aria, Alia, Elijah, Domonique, Damon, Kari'Lynn, Naresha, Ky'Mani, Hassen, Xzavier; brother, Joe Louis (Lula) Carpenter of Battle Creek, MI; sister-in-law, Bertha Carpenter of Elkhart, IN; god daughters, Ashley and Amber Jackson; great godson, Donovan Jackson-Green; special cousins, Brian and Dr. Kristopher Carpenter; and a host of nephews, nieces, relatives and lifelong friends.

Phebie was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Hall, Sr. parents, Felix and Lillie Matt Carpenter; sister, Esther (Lemmie) Mosby; brothers, Felix Carpenter Jr, Ulice (Janice) Carpenter, Albert Carpenter; stepdaughter, Charlene Turnage; grandson, De'rell Brown.
