“ I grew up on Cameron Avenue with Phyllis as my next door neighbor, when I was just a little girl. I have such fond memories of her, her smile. Oh my goodness, her laugh! She was always so kind to us kids growing up and I remember her letting us play Mother May I in her driveway (my brother and I, Nikky and Tasha). God rest your soul Phyllis, you touched many many lives!

“ My dear Phyllis, who I met while working for the U.S. Postal Service back in the late 80s, then I found out that your daughter lived in the same apartment building as I when I lived in Auburn Hills, where we both carried mail until you, Wes, and a third person were transferred to Rochester Hills. Always had mad respect for you! Gonna miss you! 🥹
