Dear Priscilla, the news of your departure to eternal glory was very shocking, I could never imagine such early farewell. You were an amazing woman of God on earth and now an angel in heaven. The precious memories of you can never be erased and I am glad to have met you nearly twenty years ago, you impacted my life wonderfully. Your legacy of sense of humor is my strength at this difficult time. I trust the Almighty God has welcomed you in the palace of Heaven. Rest in peace my friend.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Priscilla was like a sister I never had. We laugh together, we fussed at each other, and we confided in each other in trying times. She was a very important and integral part of my family. And she will surely be missed but never, ever forgotten. Our love and condolences to the entire Cosby family.

“ Priscilla and I met in middle school and became friends right away. We shared a spiritual background and discovered our mothers were church friends. Cil and I maintain that special bond through out. There was a period that we didnt see one another for some years but when we saw each other it was as if time had stood still. I will cherish our last reunion at a Birthday gathering for a mutual friend this year. We shared a table laughed, took pictures again it was as if time stood still. I thank God for allowing such a beautiful friend to travel through my life. I will cherish our memories as long as I live. I'm sending prayers to the family and friends. Forever in my heart.
