“ Lil Cousin I will never forget you. I will never forget your smile. I will never forget how you made me laugh. I remember one day you call out Teia for not shaving under her arms when we were on our way to the wave pool. As usual you were being your funny self. I love you always.

“ We laughed together, got fussed at together, we Myers(Brooke & Brit)boys for life! It wasn't the clubs, it was our love for kids that created our friendship. It's a void now that can never be replaced. When you are able to see first hand the impact a father makes in his children's life it makes it even harder to accept that the chance to make more memories is no longer. I saved a video you made for them to my phone, i listen to the song everyday! I won't let them forget “Daddy luv ya”

Coach Reuben will be missed by so many young men who's lives he touched and changed for the better. Reuben was a good man and an example of a great father. He will always be remembered fondly and I will always be grateful for the positive impact he had on my son. Rest in peace in God's love.

“ My heart is so heavy for my aunt & cousins. Andre, lil cousin, you were more like a lil brother. I will always think of you, Mike & Harv running in & out of the house yelling & playing. You are loved and missed so very much.

“ Praying constantly for my aunt and cousins...Reuben was just 'Dre' to me. He was just like one of my brothers as they was always together. All I can think about is him as a small kid always wanting to tell his mama on me (i lived with them as a teen)... If only we could go back in time. Dre will always be loved and missed ❤️

“ First let me say Andre was loved. Prayers to the family. This is a sad situation and I'm kind of lost for words. Andre.....so lost for words. I will never forget the day I met Andre. The first time he came to me with advice about a baby etc. because he had his first child on the way. Andre was involved with the kids. Etc.He will definitely b missed n the memories he created will be cherished.

I've stopped and started this comment for about 30 minutes now...just when i think i know what to say something else pops in my mind....ill first start with my first meeting with Andre and that was at my High School Graduation where we barely knew each other but was still part of one of the best days of my life...upon meeting him you knew this kid is special he had that "it" factor and was smart as they come....move forward and my memories go to our favorite sport and what always would be a connection for us basketball.. He would travel to basketball camps and tournaments...him winning defensive mvp at a major tournament when he was like 10 or 11 cant rememeber his exact age...but thats when our conversations got more in-depth as his love for the game would bring him to me and we would go to my one fondest memories of him...thats when we would go on our drives lol...yeah i put him and teia behind the wheel first in the parking lot right behind what is now Pontiac High!! Sorry Sheila but that minivan probably had brake issues cuz of us lol...moving forward b4 he had his first child he stopped at grandmas house and kicked it for about 2hrs i smoked he listened and we had a plan to move in together but it never came to fruition....i remmwber
