“ Hey dad I want to let you know we met our youngest brother. Can you believe it was through ancestry dna. Bre met him if it had not been for Carol giving her girls that gift we may have never got to know him. He looks just like you Leea says he has a lot of your mannerisms. I am sorry you and Carol didn't get a chance to meet him. They always say what happens in the dark always come out in the light. I wish things were different but life goes on hugs and kisses until we meet again love you!

“ Kenn and I have known Richard for over 30 years and he always could make me laugh. He made the most awesome steak, yams, macaroni and cheese. He would grill and bring down lunch to the Risk Management office.

I am sorry I will not be able to attend the funeral, but I wanted you to know how much my husband and I thought of Richard - what a guy! He was always concerned about everyone else and always so giving. I will miss his visits.

I will be at the visitation on Thursday to pay my respects.

GOD BLESS!

“ I have lost someone whose worth cannot be measured and each memory of him will always be treasured
I have lost someone but I feel no pain because I know that my loss is God's gain (excerpt from poem "I Have Lost Someone" by Dr. Rebera Elliott Foston)
I love you daddy and I will see you again on the other side save a place for me love always.

“ Dad it's been almost a year since you have left me. I have since then became closer to my honey and I appreciate him more than I ever did, because I had you to go to every chance I could when I was mad, but the good God took you home to be with your honey! I thank God that I had 27 years to spend with you. I could not have asked for a better grandfather. You were an excellent great-grandfather to Nydia and Justin and they really miss you. Even though you may not be here physically for us to see you, I know you are still looking after us!!! You told me that you wasn't going to leave me until you seen me walk down the aisle, in my wedding gown....well God had a better plan for you, now you no longer have to sit in the front and look back at me, you will be on top looking down at me. Daddy you will have the best view, and you can see everyone and not just me! The day will soon come, and I will make you the proudest Grandfather, and I will make sure you will be apart of my life until we meet again! Daddy I love you, and I appreciate everything you have ever done for myself, Nydia and Justin. I did tell my honey that he can't replace you but he has some very large shoes to fill! Daddy please continue to watch over us and you know I always will continue to watch over you in Holly, thanks to you :) I love u daddy
