“ From the day I met Robert we became friends. We both had a snack for picking with each other. Out of all the picking like brother and sisters do the thing we both shared was the love of the Lord. Times when I was going thru he was supportive and had that listening ear. Yes you will be missed but the angels are rejoicing.

“Dad it’s not easy.... but it has to be done I know. I can truly honestly say that me and my siblings were the most blessed kids in the world to have you as our dad/ole man. You went above and beyond to provide for us and your grands. You would always say “don’t wait until I’m gone to give me my flowers give them all to me while I’m still here”. Dad your flowers are running over you mean and meant so much to so many people that like your love there is no limit. Paw paw this pill I have to swallow is like one of my prenatal vitamins (big) and as much as I don’t want to take it I have too. You will forever be remembered I will never let your love die. I love you so much daddy and I miss you so much more. Please continue to watch over us paw paw rest now my angel!!
