“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ It is times like this when we all need to come together and remember what is important in this life. My thoughts, prayers, and heart go out to the Kennedy family right now. Death is never easy, and I know that this must be taking a toll on all of you.

Robert was an incredible person. I remember how he always wanted to have family gatherings and he always remembered to include me. His loss will be felt by many.

“ To the family and my Sister Pearl: So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith and not by sight. Yes we are of good courage and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord! 2 Corinthians 5:6-8

“ Dear Kennedy Family:

Words cannot begin to express the feeling of sadness, disbelief and loss that I feel at this time. As you know, Robert was a very, very special to me and a part of my life for 31 years. He loved life, but most importantly, he loved his family. I'm happy to say how much he loved my family and they loved him. I can still see him and my late father, Robert, sitting at the kitchen table playing cards and talking plenty of smack. I remember how hard he took the news that Dad had passed away. It broke my heart to tell him because I knew he and Dad were "buddies". I will never forget that day. For as long as I live, I will never, ever forget him. My entire family and I are praying for your family; asking God to grant you the strength and understanding that will sustain you during your hour of bereavement. Take comfort in knowing that Robert is resting in peace and is in Heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We were all blessed that the Lord allowed us to have him in our lives, albeit for a short while. May God bless you all! We love you.

“ Dear Kennedy Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before and He assures us He will do it again. (Acts24:15). God longs to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death to perfect health under paradisaic conditions right here on Earth. (Job14:14,15)
