“ My greatest Memory of Vicious, is when he came home from Saginaw Valley with the most amazing song I had ever heard. That day he didn't know it but he forever changed my life. He introduced me the rap group EPMD. It was on vinyl It was the song It's My Thing but I fell in love with the B Side It was You're a Customer. It was at that moment I figured out the difference between Rap Music and HipHop. Viscous I'm so glad I was able to tell you this story when you was alive and well....You are the reason I am the way I am about hiphop. THANK YOU FOR SHOWING A YOUNGSTA THE ROPES.....I LOVE YOU FAM LCC 4 LIFE.....Rest Easy Vicious.....

“ My most memorable time with Rob aka Vicious B was in the Lancaster's on the corner of Amos street and Lancaster street st the stop sign in front of Cisco and Poncho apartment complex. Vicious B use to rap the Sugar Hill Gang Rappers Delight song from the hip with no beat. That was dope back in the 80's.

Love you Vicious B,

“ My condolences to the the entire Burrows Family ❤️😭 Rob was like a brother to me. We shared some fun times and Holidays for many years. He was so ambitious, smart and loving. He was so excited about his new career but God had other plans for him. His laugh was hilarious, one that I will always remember. We love and miss you already... R.I.H. Brother until we meet ❤️😍

“ To the Family of Robert Burrows, I offer you my sincere condolences. Robert was on my team “Team-C” at CNS and loved him for his compassion for clients, co-workers and myself. After leaving CNS, Robert made sure he stayed in contact and a learned another side of him. He was nice, kind, friendly to all, helped everybody and always was going to figure out a way to make things work. He was fun, loved to laugh but kept it serious. He loved his children, often talked about them. Robert thanks for all the texts, “Good Morning, Happy Fridays and other cute sayings”.....you will be missed. Rest in peace my friend, you have made home!!!

“ Robert was a man who had a heart full of grace. He also had a soul filled wiith love and a firece determination to help others better themselves. To be the best that they could be. His legacy will live on in the many lives he touched and changed with love, positivity and passion. I miss seeing him at work. May the love and prayers of family and friends bring you some measure of peace and comfort during this difficult time.

“ Cousin, this one is hard. I pray for all of the Burrows family. Rob was one of the 1st Burrows Boys that I met. I remember seeing Robert Sr and knew he was my cousin, but had never met his kids.

Rob was so cool, funny, and really had a desire to want to see others excel. His smile lit up a room. The last conversation that we had took place on the set of Street Numbers and Street Sweepers. It involved me speaking about betrayal from someone we both knew that was done against me. He told me how powerful, gifted, and strong I was, and how I needed to be just that for my daughter, despite how that person had played me. We laughed about it. I told him see you later, unaware that this encounter would be the last. I will miss you Big Rob.

“ Rob was the kind of fellow who would try to help you out if he could. Although, I haven't seen him in quite a while, I still remember the laughs, the rapping, and of course Five Points. Back then, growing up, I remember what seemed like the whole neighborhood of the Casters and the Hills playing softball at Herrington Elementary School. I mean everybody was there. Now, Barb was knocking them out the park in that way she uses to hit the ball, lol. Those were the good old days. Those days are gone, but not forgotten. Like Rob, a deep brother, always making sure your head was on straight. He should've been a clinical psychologist, lol. After I got out of the service, every now and then, I would go by and talk to Rob (when he lived in Pinewood) about life and its issues. One day, I borrowed some money from Rob and couldn't pay him back at the time. Embarrassed, I just stop coming by. After some time, I ran into him and I gave him his money, but I'll never forget what he told me, "Just because you owe a person some money doesn't mean you stop coming by." I'm sorry to say, I never saw Rob again after that day. I guess within my heart, I had already condemned myself. After years gone by of soul searching, I now know that The Most High God is greater than my heart. Even though I fell, this brother was still trying to hold me up. If you have ever had the pleasure of knowing this brother, you know what I mean. Right now, I'm sure we'd have a lot to talk about in this truth called the Word of God. R.I.P., my condolences to his children and entire family.

To the Robert Burrows family I offer my condolences, Robert was a good Brother who cared about the wellbeing of Black men particularly young Black males. Robert was a coworker of mine in Pontiac we were both under a lot of job stress. Rob and I often had conversations about the plight of Black men. Also Robert and I worked in Detroit at two different agencies that collaborated at times. Rob dead at 51 - way too young, unfortunately too many Black men are dying before they reach their mid 50's. Stress is taking its toll us, we have to take better care of ourselves! Rob will be missed!
