“ While visiting my sister at Recency at Waterford I met Deacon Williamson and I saw a sweet dedicated man who loved the Lord. We sang together, me, him and those at the table. He really enjoyed the songs and I enjoyed pleasure of meeting him and I pray for the family that the peace of God be upon you.

“ *To the Williamson family, to lose a love one is very hard to deal with especially the father you all had. Your mom is missed dearly now her husband will join her. Family your father was a true example of a dad in his own world, that loved his family. he always had a kind word for any one he came in contact with. I remember two weeks ago going to to see him and his eyes lite up and said OMG! He was so happy to see me, as I was to see him. He lived a good life and always was encouraging other to stay in church. Yes, he will be missed and so will the fresh" vegetables" from the huge garden. Love you all,

“ Deacon Robert Williamson, Sr., was an inspirational Man of God. He went above and beyond to offer his time and energy to the entire Liberty Missionary Baptist Church. Truly he was a devoted man who loved God and his family; whereas you could always count on "Mr. Robert" to lead the devotion prior to worship service. We will always keep Robert, Jr., Charles "Randy" & David within our prayers.
