“ My deepest sympathy to the family.

Over 40 years ago , I worked with Rose at a nursing facility in Bloomfield Hills. She was one of the strongest and hardest worker I had ever met. I was very new to working and living in USA. One particular day, I was getting ready to reheat my home cooked meal. I removed a wine cooler from my lunch bag and placed it on the counter. While I waited for the microwave to be available , Rose looked at me and asked me why did I have that drink . I told her it was a soft drink. She hurriedly told me to hide it and take it back home. She told me that if the authorities saw me with this drink , they would terminate me instantly. I never forgot that day when Rose saved me from being terminated. I laugh about that experience every time it crosses my mind.
