“ I was blessed enough to see the effect Rose had on those around her, mostly from afar. My husband worked with Rose on 3G. They had a special friendship.... she called him her other husband. :-)
Before I ever met Rose, she would call and check on me when Jason was working, as she knew I was home alone with a newborn baby and none of my own family nearby for support. She was such a thoughtful and special person. She gave such warm and comforting hugs. I only wish the memories we all share will bring your family comfort as well. Jason and I give our deepest condolences to all who knew (and thus, loved) Miss Rosie. Her absence leaves a hole in our hearts and we will never forget the lovely example she set for all of us: a little kindness goes a long way. We love you, Rosie, till we meet again.... With all our hearts, Jason & Kelly (and Aubree and Benny) Busha

Its hard to see you leave, but I know it was all in god's plan. I just seen you earlier in the week, and we got to talking about old times before we knew it we had been talking for over 30 minutes. To James and Omar most of the talk was about how proud she was of the two of you. And that James would be starting drivers aid soon. And Omar is doing so well in school. Her smile was so big as she talked of her boys. She will be greatly missed. She was truly a wonderful and caring person. My prayers are with you guys. Avonda Cogdell

To the Delaney & Page Family,

There is no sorrow that heaven can not heal. For Death is not hard when we know where are loved ones are going. Praying peace upon you guys in the time of your absence. To the husband, the young children, You have lost a wife, and a mother, and I can't lie and say I know what that feels like. But I pray that you understand God's perfect doing, and we will all see her again. To Theresa and the rest of the siblings and immediate family be encouraged, GB! I will always remember that smile, and composed demeanor....she spoke everyone, and was friendly to all @ church! No man knows the day, or the hour.....#wemustgetready!

It is so hard to say good bye, especially to the one you loved and cared for. Rose was a beautiful and caring person, who was always smiling. her words was, o.k. what's wrong let's talk. There was so much laughter with rose. Rose and I worked together for about 20 years. She always wanted to make everything right for every one. We were supposed to have lunch together a couple of days before she left for her journey. But Rose we will be together when the Lord called me and we will have lunch every day and just have a good old time just shouting all over God's heaven. I love you Rose, and Boys take care of each other and dad. And remember to make mama proud of you. You two were her greatest love. Love Sarah Carroll
