“ We were deeply saddened to hear about the loss of Uncle Roy. Although we haven't spoke much lately, please know that our thoughts are with the family during this difficult time. The bible says in 2Timothy4:7 Kjv. I have fought a good fight, I have, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Rest easy Uncle Roy. We will never forget you. Love you always. “ My condolences to the family of Mr. Roy Gilbert. He was my parents and my grandmother's insurance man. I was impressed by the way he spoke and how informed he was regarding National news events.

It was great to see a very educated man in Pontiac. I believe he did taxes on Martin Luther King Blvd for years. So nice and friendly. He was very patient with my father, because he like to ask many questions while doing business.

God gave Mr.Gilbert many years. God Bless the family
