“ God has opened his windows and called a beautiful soul home. (Uncle Roy) as I would always call him will be truly missed. He always had a smile, kind words and funny stories to tell. The first time I met Uncle Roy he was wearing a cowboy hat and cowboy boots, I said to him I didn't know we had black cowboys in MI. He told me you do now, so get used to it. Be at peace in your heavenly home Roy, where Brenda Carol has been waiting for you to be together again. Our lost is truly heavens gain.
