“ My heart felted condolence to Samantha's family. I am truly sorry for the passing of Sam, please excepted my condolence along with my Prayer's for the Family at this difficult time in your life. God is Truly Able to heal and deliver you , even when you think you can't take another step God is there caring you along the way. I just wanted to express my condolence and also, to encourage the Family knowing I have been in your shoe's plenty of times before and sometimes it is not what a person can or can not do at this time but, its a kind word just to help you trough the Day. I am truly Praying for you all Today knowing God have you all. Love you and look to the hills which cometh your help knowing your help comes from the Lord. "Be Encourage Family"
