I saw this picture of my lovely cousin and had to post it, for this embodies the spirit of this beautiful woman. She was so full of life. Thoughtful, expressive, spiritual and funny. She dreamed dreams of marriage and children, but wanted it to be just right in order. Just wanted her Daddy to walk her down the aisle. She may have been a Daddys girl, but was her mother's daughter. A perfect blend. It's hard to believe that we will not hear that laughter or have her presence fill a room. But those who knew her will always carry her spirit in our hearts tell her stories. When one transitions so young we search for answers. I personally am grateful and thankful for those moments with my little cousin. Love you Sweetie!
