*I'm writing in concern of the services of my cousin Sherry (Sharen) Ann Cumbus. It was a good service and I wish I could have been there. There seemed to have been some misunderstanding concerning the proper form of service, which was why I was not present. However, today, 6-4-21, I was able to attend some portion of the services, inwhich I did enjoy. I would like to declare healing and joy to all who mourned over Sherrys passing, in the name of Jesus.
Cousin Allen.*

“ From what I can say, my cousin sherry, was a very good women and person, who loved her family and friends wholeheartedly. She was spiritually gifted and well informed in the Lord Jesus ... the Holy Spirit. A beautiful Black woman who had in life many tribulations, but at the same time, much grace and support from God, family, and friends. Im really sorry that I did not get to see you and talk with you, my Love ... so that you could see that the seeds you plated in me, spiritually have taken root and have grown, and continue to do so. I will always love you, and will always miss you.your favorite cousin, Allen H. Cumbus.

Sharon Ann Cumbus Obituary

To my dear cousin Sherry..I am so glad I had an opportunity to talk with you a month ago. Not realizing it would be the last time I would hear your voice. I have known you since birth and as I talked with you as a grown woman you spoke with so much wisdom. You gave me some good advice and I am so glad I followed it. Death is something we have no control of but our Heavenly Father does. And one day, He is going to do away with death. But, until that time comes I will reflect on the fond memories I have of you. Your cousin James Harper

“ So sorry to hear of Sharon’s passing, She and I have been acquaintance since middle school. She was my locker partner. She has been a constant source of encouragement to me for many years. I am truly going to miss her and the text she would send me and the encouraging words she would send me on a continual basis. Her text messages were like poems and very well thought out writings. I have many poems and writings to remember her and I will always cherish them. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
