“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I will be praying for all of you and remember Sharon would cook them boiled eggs and polish sausage for us she also said that my son Marreon dance like a Male dancer and stop by the house just to see him dance and would throw him dollars. Sharon had a lot of love for her family and friends. That's the way I'm going to remember her and not tell our secrets.

“ My condolences and prayers go out to the family. It is always so difficult to lose a love one especially when it is so untimely. We all have a designated time for birth and death. Only God knows the time for each. It is up to us to take advantage and make the best of the time in between. Let's make the best of our time and love each other while we are here. Rest in Peace Sharon.
