“ I have known Mr. Stanley Jones, since I was 5 years old, I am now age 56. I met him when my family first moved to the Pontiac Knolls from the South side. He was always nice and it was always fun when Jackie came to play with my sisters and I, I will always remember him for his pretty yard and stopping our Bingo game at the Bowen Center, by yelling "How ya'll doing!" while the numbers were being called. Long live Mr. Stanley Jones in my heart and I have great respect. God Bless you Mrs. Jones, all the children and Grandchildren.

“ Uncle Stanley, such a awesome man. I remember he was helping my father James Hatten fix our front door. My father hit uncle's Stanley hand with the hammer. I tell you if you could hear the two of them in the doorway. It was such a funny moment. Loved both of them so much. Know they are both some where around the throne laughing it up. Lord give my family strength to endure. In Jesus name amen.

“ So Sorry to hear about Mr. Jones. I often sat next to him, in front or behind him during 8:00am service at Welcome Missionary Baptist Church. He was a beautiful person and very kind. I enjoyed him giving a testimony to teach the congregation about what was right or wrong about things going on in our society today. I was so impressed with how healthy he was and getting around at the age of 96 which was a blessing. He will truly be missed. RIP Mr. Jones. Deepest sympathy to the Jones family.

“ *Mrs. Jones, Eunice, Rita and the entire Jones Family:
Words cannot begin to express the sorrow that we are feeling in learning of the passing of Mr. Jones. He was such a wonderful, Christian man and a true joy to be around. Mr. Jones was a great neighbor and a very good friend of my late husband, Martin Wilkerson. Mr. Jones was the first neighbor that I met after Martin and I got married. He had such a warm heart,; was a wonderful storyteller, extraordinary personality and would help anyone in need in any way that he could. Mr. Jones was always a joy to talk to.*

Please know that your entire family are in our prayers and you all have our sincerest condolences. Mr. Jones will truly be missed. He may be gone, but never will he be forgotten. We love you all and pray for God to give you strength, understanding and comfort during your hour of bereavement.
