“ May you Rest In Peace, Uncle Stanley. Many of my best memories involve spending time with you during the summers of my youth—enjoying music, nature, good conversation, and life on your boat. I'm so glad I was able to spend time with you in December. Love, Leslie

“ Dear Bea,
I didn't know your Stan - but if he was loved and cherished by you, Bea, who is one of the most kind, generous, and loving persons who I have ever encountered in my life, he must have been a very wonderful man indeed. I am sorry for your loss, and the circumstances that you endured in his passing.
Yours,
Lee Dispenza

“ I'm sending this because I'm unable to be there. Uncle Stanley is considered cool and smooth, it was in the way he walked and talked. My girls remember him like that too. I enjoyed riding on his boat and even when he had the motorcycle, going for a ride with him.

Song: It's well, it is well with my soul

Bea, be strong in the Lord and the power of His might.
