“ You were more than a brother in-law, you were my brother. You showed your love for the family through your actions. As my daughters second dad I truly appreciate you for always being there when my baby girl needed you. You babysat my Ashley when she was young and taught her how to be naughty but most importantly you taught her how to be a decent person with integrity and how to have a strong bond with her family. I appreciated you so much for that. You are already missed dearly and will never be forgotten.

Love you always
