Susan was a resident of Pontiac, Michigan. She was a leader of her crew at the AMC Star Theatres at Great Lakes Crossing, this was a job she truly cherished. Susan loved scrapbooking and stamping, cooking and creating her own recipes, playing and snuggling with the cats DaVinci and Brady. She treasured her mid-day naps and doing her picture puzzles. She loved being on Facebook and talking to all her friends, both old and new. She loved watching movies, listening to music, and watching football, especially the Green Bay Packers and Brett Favre. Susan's favorite animal was the penguin. Her Ideal night was a dinner of Penne Rustica, a tall glass of Dr, Pepper, and ice cream for dessert, followed by a game cribbage in bed before falling asleep curled up with her husband. Susan had a glowing infectious spirit, touching the lives of everyone around her. She appreciated the little things in life such as a blooming flower, a kind gesture, holding hands and love notes on her pillow. But more than all these things, Susan loved her family, her cats, her mother, her husband, and most of all, her girls. Susan was and always will be the most beautiful, thoughtful, wonderful, and loving mother, wife, child, and friend. I will miss you my fair maiden, but you will remain in my heart forever. And your sweet prince will forever remain in yours... “ We are so sadened by your death; much before it's time. It is almost incomprehensible. You have never left my mind or my heart even though I may not have known where you lived. For your family, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. May you find some reasoning and peace in future days. Your loss is shared by those of us who love that sweet and beautiful person.

“ I feel so robbed - we were just re-connecting. Jeremy, I cannot begin to imagine how stolen from you must feel. I imagine she not to have been just your wife, but your life. To paraphrase Ralph Waldo Emerson, the thoughts and memories you hold within you are far bigger than what was, or what will be. I hope that sooner, rather than later, you are able to focus on those and from those, gain peace. I know you not, I knew Sue - but I wish you the love I would have given to her. God be with you, and may grace shine upon her two children.
