“ Sorry for your loss and may God up lift this family and help the children for strength and mercy to understand this sudden loss along the way. Will keep everyone in prayer and especially the mother to hang in there for guidance to make this long journey with the remembrance she shared with her daughter.

Sincerely,

Dee Townsend

“ We grew up together in the Herrington Hills, Mesha was really cool, and down to earth. Praying, and asking for the family to have strength at this very unfortunate time.

“ Frances and Donna!
My heart goes out to you and your family during this time. Sometimes, there are no words, but my prayer for you and your family is to hold on to God's hand. May you be strengthened and comforted with the memories you shared. May each second become more bearable. Know that I am here no matter the time of day. Love you both!!!

“ I went to school with Mesha. I hate to hear of the lost of such a young woman with so much life ahead of her. May the family find some sense of comfort knowing that God is not responsible for the hurt that we feel when we lose someone in death. He is hurting too, and promises to restore life to those in his memory. (John5:28,29) May you be there to welcome her back from this deep sleep in a beautiful paradise earth that God has promised. (Psalms 37:10,11)
