“ I never thought I'd be saying goodbye to my Sister/friend so soon. We were just laughing and joking, making plans. There will never be a day that passes that I don't think of you or talk about our memories together. You came into my life when I was 11 and been there every since. My children think the world of you and so do I. I promise that I'll be there when and if your children (my nieces and nephews) need me. Get your rest sis and know that I'll always Love you!!! P.S. I'll never forget you slapped me when my dad passed. You're still the only person to get that close to do that.
