“ Theresa...this is hard. You were my fun, loud and gregarious auntie. I will forever cherish our times together. From sleepovers, going to concerts, dancing at the drop of a hat, to our long talks. Your personality is unmatched. You would do anything for your nieces and nephews and we all loved you very much. I'm going to miss you so much. Holidays will never be the same. I'll keep playing loud music in your honor and keep the party going! You are missed 😭

“ First and foremost, My Condolences To The Family! Theresa you were a light wherever you went, you lit up the room no matter how big or small with your smile and outgoing personality..! This is one of my favorite memories of you and I will always cherish the good times we had over the years working together..! I cut my hair so you could have it put in yours and you came in to work super happy after it was done, I had to have a picture to cherish the friendship/bond we had. Gonna miss you lady but your memories will live on your long time friend Rhonda

“ Theresa’s my cousin through my Dad. Her Grandmother Honey (Odessa) and my Dad (AB Davis) are first cousins and we’re very close. We saw each other on Holidays because my Dad always went to visit his family on Holidays. Theresa always smiled, was always friendly and talkative. It was hurtful to hear that she passed. I am stunned and at a loss. I immediately thought of her children, grandchildren, siblings, numerous cousins the Jones’ and her beautiful mother Robbie and became more solemn. If I feel how I feel I pray that God comforts you all. That He wraps his arms around you and brings solace to your souls because she rests in heaven with Him now. Theresa has earned her wings. Much love and respect to you all. The Latimores and the Jones.
