“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“*Dear McCoy Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.*

“ We were so sad to hear of Grand dad's passing. My sister Heneretta is the widow to his son Thomas McCoy. I had the pleasure of meeting him prior to the passing of my brother in law. Although it was a sad time in our family when I met Grand dad, we shared such great memories while drinking our favorite drink Delaware punch :). It was very easy for me and my kids to call him Grand dad because we latched on to him immediately. I will miss that gentle smile and contagious laugh. I love you Grand dad. Rest in peace in heaven with your son Tony.
