“ I had the pleasure to meet Todd on only a couple of occasions. But in the time I spent with him, he showed himself as an honest person, a true friend, and a caring family man.

I hope he has found peace at God's table where he will spend eternity at His side.

And may the Lord bring peace to all of his family and friends at this time of sorrow.

“ I love you, sweetheart. Your gentle nature, kind disposition and a heart as big as the ocean always made me respect and admire you. You are the best dad I know; you know Yvonne and Kathy will take wonderful care of the kids. Rest in peace, sweet prince, and when I see you, I'm bringing lobster tails. Don't tell St. Peter because he's Jewish, probably keeps Kosher and won't approve. Help me smuggle them in. I'll always love you,
Charlie

“ You are not Dead!
You did not Die!

 I see your talents when Logan fixes the bikes.*

 I see your eyes when I call Austin's name.*

 I see your heart when Hallye is holding the puppies.*

 I see your personality when Brittany wants something.*

And even though she is not yours I hear you when Jacki talks to the younger ones.

Your body is not here, but we feel your soul. You rest Daddy and we will see you again, in our dreams.. talk to you in our prayers, and someday we will hold you again. No more pain, I am thankful for everyday we had....

“ Little Brother (Suzy), who am I going to call now when my car breaks down?, who is going to hear the funny noises over the phone and tell me my rotor's gone? You were an awesome mechanic, but a better brother. We had our times, but I always loved you. I still remember the day you came into this world and we were all trying to take a peek at you through the window at Lapeer hospital. I'm sorry that I use to make you tell me the truth and then I would still punch you for telling me the truth. I really do wish now that I could tell you this face to face, but will wait until I walk through the pearly gates and see you standing there with Mom & Dad. You are always in my heart and I will do my best to always be there for your children. I love you little brother and I will see you again. P.S. Give Mom, Dad & Veronica a big hug for me.
