“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Dear Blakemore Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before and He assures us He will do it again. (Acts24:15). God longs to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death to perfect health under paradisaic conditions right here on Earth. (Job14:14,15)

“ The Bible tells us that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God (1Cor.15:50) and Paul knew this. Therefore, Paul had a desire to escape this "naked state" spoken of in verse 2Cor. 5:3. He did not want to feel the sting of death that so many other saints before him felt. He groaned to be clothed with the glorious body he so longed for, so that he could be present with Christ. He knew that, while he was in that mortal body, he could not be present with Him at His Kingdom.

“ Dear Blakemore Family,
Sorry to read about Tracy. Its sad to see this happen to someone loved by so many with so much to look forward to. Take comfort in the hope of seeing him again (John 5:28,29). In a world free of sickness, pain and death (John 5:28,29). Their Tracy can be reunited with loved ones and reach his full potential.
