“ There are no words that compare to the hurt you must be feeling by losing a child. My heart surely goes out to you and your family. I did not know your son but, it feels like I do because I have known you all for so many years... Being that I have a niece and nephew within the Newburn family. Just remember that absent from the body is Present with the Lord. NeNe, hold on to God's hand knowing that he will give you the strength to make it through. Renee and Ms. Newburn know that when you think you are alone God is right beside you all. Be Strong and knowing that God is in control. Love you all and I will continue to Pray for you at all times.
