“ To the Berry Family:

Just a note to let you all know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Brian was a wonderful and loving Christian man, an outstanding State Trooper and someone who was truly a pleasure to have known. I thank God for allowing me the blessing to have known him. Brian always had a smile on his face and we always talked whenever he came to the 50th District Court. I looked forward to seeing his infectious smile and enjoying his outgoing personality. He will truly be missed, but he is now with Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in Heaven. His Tour of Duty may have ended here on Earth, but his Tour of Heaven has just begun. May God continue to bless you during your hour of bereavement and thereafter. I love you all!

“ Brian was more than just a cousin to me, he was one of my dearest and best friends. He truly lived a life of service. Service to his family, whom he loved more than life itself. Service to his country as a honorary member of the US Marines, service to his community as a decorated member of the Michigan State Troopers, service to his fellow man to whom he constantly witnessed to about the goodness of God, and most of all service to our Heavenly Father. The heavens rejoiced on Sunday, 6 Jun 2010, when Brian was called home. I can hear God say to Brian...Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant!!! Rest in peace my Christian brother, and I WILL see you again! Halleluiah!!! Love You, Randy
