“ Ty and I worked together at ACC-DTA. I am going miss him dearly. He was in my "quad" of desks although we were not on the same team. During the height of the lockdown, he made sure to check on me (and vice versa). We had the best chats about life, generally, and I appreciate him so much for that.

I thought things were going to be on the up and up for him.

Ty was a great colleague, amazing and real friend, talented artist, and above all, a great Father. Happy I got the time I did with him and he will truly be missed.

Until we meet again Ty. Sending all the love to your girls and the rest of his family.

“ Ty and I grew closer and closer near, what I did not know was, the end. We talked weekly if not more. We talked about basketball, family, dating, and oh yes he could talk! He supported me during a very hard time in my life with my infant son going through life saving medical procedures, always being that positive voice i needed. During our last conversation, he spoke about how he was proud of what he had accomplished as a Man, a father, and more. We were talking on the phone but I could feel his chest puffed out proud of his life accomplishment. When ever we talked he would tell me I was destine to be great, gassing me up.(always little brothering me) I can still here him finishing his stories or compliments with "You know what what I'm saying Kev?". He will be missed by many, I am just glad I had the time I did with him. He was my teammate at work and in Life, “ Tyron was not only my work colleague at ACC-DTA, over time he became one of my best friends, and the little brother that I never had. He talked (and we know he could talk lol) many days about life, our children and just making the best overall decisions for our future. Ty came to our family during a difficult season in my life. His children became my nieces, and he became my daughter's uncle. Even the dogs respected ole Ty. He was the only person who would bark back at them, shutting them up completely.

Up until the Tuesday before his passing he was still listening to his Big sister, giving advice and promising that things would work out.

Awesome father, smart, talented, caring, loyal, and VERY opinionated LOL. Regardless of what those opinions were, he was always honest and supportive no matter what. I never knew why I called him Fly Ty but I now understand. He was preparing to be the angel that we all needed. I will miss my brother, but all I can hear him say is, "Meek you got this, everything gone be alright."

You've done well Fly Ty. All is well with your soul. May God continue to give strength to your immediate and extended family and friends. I live you bro. Until then. in your voice, I'm saying "Later".

“ I was sorry to hear of Ty's passing. I'm glad that the last time we spoke we just talked about family and what each of us had been up to over the years. Even though I met Ty when he first came to TACOM (now ACC) as an intern we never had the opportunity to work on the same team. I'm glad that each time we ran in to each other we took the time to catch up. Little did I know that the last time we spoke would be our last. Please accept my condolences on his passing on to eternity. I will be praying for his family during this difficult time. Ty will definitely be missed among his friends and coworkers at ACC.

Tom and Mimi; I lift you and the family I prayers of understanding and love. Tyron was a big part of our family. Taimme(sister), Lohren, Nicole (twins) and David spent many Saturdays together. He was in boy scouts with David for a minute, and attended church with us sometimes. I remember him making you all bring him over one Christmas morning, because he knew that he had something under the tree. He was the 2nd person at my house when I came home from the hospital, last March. He was like one of our own children, and we grieve with you. He and the twins were still close and we all loved and will miss him. He was a great dad and an awesome uncle.
