“ Virgie! What can I say? She's been wonderful to me all of my life: from giving my nephew Ivan and I rides to school along with her daughter Toni, to helping myself and my nephew Arthur ("Rip") get a summer job working in the Newman Court apartments, and I can go on and on! I would call her from time to time in these last five years, and am remiss for not following my first mind to call her two weeks ago when I passed by the house on several occasions. May you now Rest in Peace! Love you! 🥰

“ I used to work side by side with Virgie in typing back in the day. I remember finding some stranded kittens on my way to work, so I put them in a box and brought them to work. I called Animal Control to come get them. In the meantime, I walked into our typing office and started telling Virgie about the little cats. She screamed, threw her hands in the air, yelling at me, “No cats!” And proceeded to tip her chair over. I didn’t know she had a fear of cats. After being checked out by the paramedics, she was okay. I never felt so bad! Point of this story? She never held it against me. She was my friend and was a caring, giving, jovial soul. May God keep her close as this world just lost a special soul. ❤️🙏❤️
