“ I will always remember the loving atmosphere that Aunt Faye created with delicious food and her presence. I will continue to tell friends, family and co-workers about how she had chocolate cake on Wednesday, fried fish and french fries on Friday and a different cake with a big dinner on Sunday. It was a comforting feeling to know that she would be home when I dropped by and there might be some friend corn and pork chops to go along with her smile. I will miss her until I see her again in heaven.

“ I will always remember Sister Combs for her gift of Hospitality at Johnson Temple/Memorial. She didn't want recognition, she wasn't into that. Faye had a way of letting you solve your own problems or issues, whenever you came to her for advice. A simple shrug of the shoulder, wink, or head nod would do. To Marsha, Andrea, and Joy, she held on to you so tightly, I ask of you to hold on and be there for each other, regardless of what goes on, Be encouraged.
