I have sat where you are now and although I don't know your feelings I do understand what you are going through.

Dad lived his life and he lived it to the fullest and he enjoyed his life and his family especially Cahntel, when she would climb up around his neck and play with his bald head.

God makes no mistakes, and God will take care of you through this seemingly hard time.

I am so sorry I can't be there

But my prayers and spirit will be there with you.

Love you all,

God Bless, Debby
