Walter was a great brother whom I grew to know as family, he and his lovely bride Trvania. We met at Ft. Belvior, Va and were close coworkers in Security. I think of him often and was so saddened to hear of his transitioning years ago. Rest in Peace my Brother, Anthony Pierre (301.920.4488)

“ May the comfort of God help you all during this difficult time. As you comprehend this profound loss, look through the difficulty of today to see beyond your sorrow. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead. Please take comfort in knowing that all of his friends have all of you in their thoughts and prayers. Walt was truly a Prince of a gentleman. He will be missed by the Belvoir community.

“ Walt, My brother my friend. Only god knows how we got to this point, but I guess he has his purpose for everything he does. My guest is he needed one more good man to carry out his blessing, and he found a good one to do his deeds. It's hard to write these word, but I know you can see what we are all going through. The good thing is you can see all the love god had blessed you with in life. Travania there are no word to describe what you are going through, they say life is short and you should live it to its fullest and he did just that with you. I know if he had to start from day again he'd start with you, as our heart are sadden and minds left wandering. I look to the day that we see each other again and the sound of when stretched my name out J e f f r e y!!! All my love to the family and love on this day. Rest in peace my brother my friend.
