“ Jeff, Claire, Courtney, Jeff Jr .,and all the Robinson Family May the Holy Spirit wrap you all up with His comfort this morning and always and may His peace give you the strength you need to say good bye. Your mom was truly a beautiful woman. I enjoyed her conversations at church and her fellowship on those weekend bus rides we took every now and then. She really loved her family. She will be missed But may you always smile when you think of her as she rest. Love From Leonard, Dora and the rest of the Cole Family.

“ R.I.P. Mrs. Robinson. Just as when my dear Mother went home to be with The Lord earlier this year, I know that you are already in a better place rejoicing before your Heavenly Father and all the host of heaven. My condolences to Mr. Robinson and all of the Robinson children as they both mourn the loss of their soulmate and mother but also as they take comfort in the truth that she is now in a better place where there is no more sickness AND death has been conquered and defeated because Mrs. Willa Robinson had given her life on her to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Again, R.I.P. Mrs. Robinson.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

Revelation 14:13

"For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. "

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:"

"Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. "

"Wherefore comfort one another with these words. "
