“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ *Sullivan, Cheryl, my husband Burkie, and myself share the same anniversary. We all have traveled the UAW conference circuit together. Bill and Cheryl have been a shining example of true love.
I'm a better person just from knowing them. Cheryl my prayers are with you and your entire family. I know Sullivan got to heaven and immediately started working the room and scheduling meetings. To be absent from the body just means your present with the Lord!*

“ Where do i start...it just doesn't seem real. I'm going to miss you Bo, very much. Hey hey hey there, I'm going to miss your big vibrant smile. Everyone in the family has learned big words, words that we know aren't in the dictionary that you created. You were a work of art in your own right. No one has and will ever be the same after being in your presence. Thank you for doctoring on me when I was sick. Thank you for all of your insight even when I didn't ask for it. Some how you new what to say when it needed to be said. I love you and I know that God is going to have some of the best conversations with you but he better get a dictionary to understand. You told us that 2012 was the last reunion we would see you at and I thought to myself where is he going but what a trip you decided to take, to the kingdom of Glory. Rest well, your work down here is done. Our family has another angel watching over us planning a great reunion for when we all get together again, Oh what a time!
