“ It's so sad to lose my Uncle Tamp! All the advice he gave me, all my car and trucks he fixes, All the time I sat under him in the garage and watch Uncle Tamp work on different peoples cars for less then nothing! And I still can't fix a car today! One thing I can say God has a house with many rooms; God did s...ay he'll prepare a place for you. John. 14:2 Tamp no more working Your work has paid off! Its hard to find another man like my uncle Tamp that fix people cars for cheap! Also gave good advice. It's so sad uncle Tamp help me get up into the hosiptal where he had work at! As soon as I started my uncle left!! I guess I can look at it like this his work is now finish and he just passed the torch to his nephew. My uncle work hisself to his death! God told him enough is enough!! Your job is done!

“ Nedra, Bri, and Rakiyah.

The good thing about having your dad for all these years is the memory of him that you will have in your hearts forever. I'm sure there will be times in the future where it may seem too hard to go on...but that's when you look into your hearts for all of those memories that you guys created together. It will get better and better with time. The pain and heartache that you may feel now will eventually give way to peace. I know from experience.

Nedra you are the oldest so you look out for your sisters and help your mom out when needed b/c I'm sure that's what Uncle Tamp would have wanted. And you don't let anybdy...family, friend, or foe...treat you, your sisters, or your mother with anything but the utmost respect during this time of tribulation...and any other time in your life for tht matter. Im sure that is what Uncle Tamp would have wanted. You guys have my number and you can use it whenever you'd like...even if its just for a shoulder to lean on. I love you girls. I loved Uncle Tamp w/all my heart. God is an Amazing God so I am confident that your dad and my dad are in Heaven having fun....or knowing them.....ARGUING! Lol

God Bless.

“ In times of grief, pain, and suffering it seems as though we also suffer. But we have to remember that even in bad times that God always has your back. And in the mist of our worst storms he is always good.

We times get hard and it becomes more difficult to find strength i look to the book of Psalm 30:5 "For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

It reminds me that trouble don't last always and this is something that God is bringing you through.

*I Love you and I'm praying for you,
Your cousin Trese*

“ *The Lord is my strength and my salvation.
To my family, my heart is heavy over this loss, Tamp was my brother and friend, he was my babysitter when I was young, we all were right there together next door to each other for all of my life, we have laughed and cried together and been through the losses of all of our parents together. I will miss Tamp for just like all of my big sisters and brother I too feel the pain of losing a special brother.
God loaned him to us for a season and that season is over, we enjoyed him for 60 long years. Now we must let God have him back because that is truly where he belongs. I am sorry I can't be there with you at this time but just know, my love, and prayers are with all of you. And I will be praying for your strength.

“ Saw you friday seems like yesterday. I will miss our talks and your smile. I'm so glad that I told you thanks for all the work on my car, and just for being a good friend, you always had a ear to listen when I complained about nothing. It's hard to work in this building without seeing you. I will truly miss you.

“ My Prayers go out to the Family. I met Tamp while working at the hospital. Tamp was a man with a big heart. We'd sit and talk for hours and Tamp would say Gil I've got work to do. I'll miss you brother. You touched so many lives, and every one at work is walking around in a daze. God knows, even when we don't understand. I'll miss watching the football games in your garage. I'll miss the laughs we had and listening while You and Leroy went back and forth. Man we had a lot of laughs in that garage. That was everybody's hang out, Tamps garage on the weekends. You will be truly missed.
