“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Aunt Patricia and family, I was so sorry to hear of God taking Bill home. I am praying that God will comfort you at this time, and give you the Hope of seeing him again, by trusting in the redemptive sacrifice on the cross of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ Aunt Trish, Kathy, Sharon. Chuck, Chris and John and all of your families. We shared so many good times throughout the years with you and Billy. He was as much like a brother as a cousin and we loved him so much. I fondly remember making our First Holy Communion together at St. Michael's Church. We were lined up in girl's and boy's lines to march into church. Billy kept sneaking from the back of the boys line (he was a "Y" and I was an "L") to come behind me and yank my veil until a Sister warned "Mr. York, get back in that line and stay there or Jesus will march you down the aisle himself! Billy stopped and started laughing. I thank you, Billy, for showing us what a good sense of humor, God, must have since you were able to leave the church alive that day! I will always miss you, but I know you are in good company with God and the family now, and you're probably up there playing baseball again! Love, Aunt Peggy, Lauri, Tim, Marty and Cindy Leahy.

“ Dear York Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before through His Son Jesus, and He assures us He will do so again very soon. (Acts24:15,Job15:15).
